When ex-millionaire Ryan Sullivan learns he and a sexy stranger inherited a mansion with the condition they must first live in it together for three months, he doesn't see the downside. In ninety days, they'll sell the house and walk away millionaires. He didn't count on falling for the ethereal woman he's forced to live with and vowed not to touch. Brought up by an eccentric mother who believes she and her daughters are Muses possessing the magic to inspire creativity in the right men, Portia Dubrovsky never gave credence to her mother's delusions-until Portia meets Ryan the morning after dreaming of him. Craving the permanent home she's never had, she's determined to find a way to buy Ryan's share of the house-one way or another. As the walls of the luxurious mansion crumble around them, they can't deny the electricity they share as they dance to the music, which only they can hear. But when the music stops playing, will they sell the home and go their separate ways, or have they have built a sturdy enough foundation to last a lifetime?
