Unbidden TJ Park

The most terrifying supernatural crime novel you will ever read.

The heist is cursed from the start. Doug Mulcahy and his gang of career criminals hijack a fortune in black opals - gemstones with a rep for being unlucky. They certainly seem to be for Mulcahy, judging by the horrific accident that cuts their escape short. Then there is the strange house where they take refuge and the even stranger woman they take hostage - until a rogue gang member takes more than just her life. Now, with even more blood on their hands, the fleeing thieves are forced to make a final stop. Posing as weekend hunters, they besiege a remote homestead inhabited by an innocent family. But the powers aligning against the gang have followed them to the property, giving rise to wicked portents and apparitions. Not even the worst thieves, no matter how desperate and cornered, could reckon on the evil pursuing them. And the horrors are only just beginning...
