The Party's Over David J Cooper

Having become disillusioned with his mundane life in England, and having suffered the break-up of a six year relationship, David decides to give all of this up and risk taking the opportunity of looking for a life of adventure in Mexico. Although he has the security of being in a good job and living in an apartment overlooking the ocean on The English Riviera, this isn't enough. Something is missing in his life and Mexico seems to be the answer.....but, does this adventure turn out to be what he had expected?
