Love hides in the mist...until lust burns it away.

In..., Book 3

On a mist-shrouded hill in the Scottish Highlands, Louise comes face to face with a sexy ex-con with a dangerous secret, and gives into wild, irresistible lust.

In the aftermath, Louise's shame mingles with a desperate desire to repeat her shocking behavior. It's hard enough to form any kind of relationship in a small village. Throw in frail parents, her struggling B&B, prying private investigators, nosy journalists, and peculiar weather, and it's impossible.

Thierry, one of the Ardknocken House untouchables, has done the time for computer fraud and repaid most of the money. Yet he's still getting anonymous emails demanding its return. Investigators are digging closer to secrets that threaten his freedom, the well-being of his friends, and his fragile, passionate relationship with Louise.

She is safer far away from him. But the oddly frequent mists conspire to bring them together. Mists with strange aphrodisiac qualities...and a danger only Thierry begins to recognize.

Warning: Contains naughty behavior, Scottish-accented bad language, and wicked weather even by Highland standards!
