All the Way Home Patricia Reilly Giff

It's August 1941, and Brick and Mariel both love the Brooklyn Dodgers. Brick listens to their games on the radio in Windy Hill, in upstate New York, where his family has an apple orchard; Mariel, once a polio patient in the hospital in Windy Hill, lives in Brooklyn near the Dodgers' home, Ebbets Field. She was adopted by Loretta, a nurse at the hospital, and has never known what happened to her own mother. Someday, somehow, she plans to return to Windy Hill and find out. When a fire destroys their orchard, Brick's parents must leave the farm to find work. They send him to live in Brooklyn with their friend Loretta, even though Brick knows that their elderly neighbors need his help to pick what's left of the apples. The only good thing about Brooklyn is seeing the Dodgers play—that, and his friendship with Mariel. Maybe, together, they'll find a way to return to Windy Hill, save the harvest, and learn the truth about Mariel's past.

Fred Simpson:

As a college student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's internal or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this All the Way Home can make you really feel more interested to read.
