Cursed Bloodline (Where Angels Play Book 2) Daniel Chiera

A librarian, a paramedic, a firefighter and a soldier home from war are taken on an uncontrollable journey as dreams of a divine kind unite them. Together their dreams tell a creation story of one couple blessed and another cursed; one destined to be fruitful and multiply and the other to leave a blessed place never to return. In the dark of night, Gods of the ancient world prepare themselves for the ancient deluge, writing their own history of events. The body of a man that God held dear and its long journey to its tomb is uncovered as dreams and reality become blurred. Ancient writings shed light on the possible truths of a tomb that through time hid its secret and its purpose.

With help from a psychotherapist and a former priest, the unlikely group tries to piece together the history of man, angels that disobeyed their heavenly Father and the offspring that gave rise to a new darkness on earth.

Cursed Bloodline is the second book of a trilogy that takes readers to a past that has been hidden from mankind for generations.
