Includes the four short stories listed below.

Tom, Steve & Me

Sally, Tom and Steve have been friends for almost twenty years. They live on the same street today as they did when they were kids. As a youngster, Sally was always the tomboy who liked to play boy's games. In their early twenties now, Sally regrets that she is no longer as close to the two as she used to be. The two guys seems as close as ever - possibly even closer.

Bored after dumping her latest boyfriend, Sally decides to follow her two friends to Depworth Woods. When she catches up with them at their old den, she sees something that shocks her to the core. It seems the two guys are much more than friends now.

When Tom invites her to a party, she reluctantly accepts, but plans to stay only a short while, and then make her excuses. Tom and Steve have other plans, and the three friends end up having a party none of them will ever forget.

Harry, Andy & Me

Gillian is a life guard at the local council pool. She and Gabby, her fellow lifeguard, like to play a game which they know as 'Cock Check' where they see how men 'measure up'.

They disagree on how to categorise Harry - one of the male lifeguards - so Gillian decides to inspect his credentials. She hides in the walk-in cupboard in the men's changing room hoping to get a look at Harry's equipment. When Harry and Andy come into the changing room together, she thinks nothing of it.

What she see shocks her so much that she gives herself away, and is confronted by the two guys. What follows is a night she is never likely to forget.

Chris, Howie and Me

Jenny finishes work early and walks in on Chelsea, her flatmate, in bed with two men. Jenny hasn't had sex for quite some time, so can't resist watching the three of them. That is until Chelsea notices her, and invites her to join in. Jenny declines, but soon regrets her decision as she sits alone in her bedroom.

The next day, Jenny finds she has the flat to herself because Chelsea has been called away on a last minute work assignment. As she showers and prepares for a quiet night in, she hears the doorbell. It's Chris and Howie - the two guys from the previous day.

The two guys soon make it clear that they find her attractive, and before long the three of them are having all kinds of fun. But there's something Jenny doesn't know - Chris and Howie are more than just good friends - much more.

Gareth, Terry & Me

Dawn likes her men hot! They don't come much hotter than some of the guys who play rugby on the sports field behind her flat. One day, when she is feeling particularly horny, Dawn decides to 'accidentally' bump into the rugby guys in the pub. Sure enough, she soon gets talking to Gareth and Terry. Gareth has to shoot off, but Dawn and Terry are soon back at her place where they quickly get to know one another - in every way.

Two weeks later, Dawn plans to surprise Terry while he is still in the changing rooms after the match. When she finds Terry and Gareth together in the showers what does she do?. Turn and run? No way! As Terry is quick to point out:

'three can have even more fun than two.'
