Why Did God Make Angels? Marilyn Woody

Why did God make angels? Surrounded by the world's fascination with angels, it is easy for children to lose sight of why God made these majestic creatures. But He had a specific purpose in mind - to assist Him in His work on earth. All through the Bible we are given examples of angels in action - praising God, serving as His messengers, rescuing and protecting, and celebrating as people come to salvation - all to help us understand their purpose in God's universe.

Author Marilyn Woody starts with twelve biblical examples of angels at work, showing how they carried out God's orders in the lives of Abraham, Daniel, Peter, Mary, and others. Then she explains how God uses angels today to comfort and encourage children in their everyday lives.
