My name is Serenity. I'm a single 28-year-old middle school teacher here in Mississippi. I'm usually fine with that until Christmas rolls around. This Christmas proves to be a little different, though. I met Tramorris, a 21-year-old college football standout that is starting to make it look a lot like Christmas! He's a young thang, but proves to be grown in many other ways. Surprisingly, he's perfect for me. But you know there has to be some drama, right? My best friend, Andrea, is in town and wants me all to herself. She loves me and doesn't want to share the little time that we have together. I've missed her so much, but I'm drawn to Tray. I'm literally stuck between a rock and a hard place. I eventually figured out a way to intertwine all of our lives. It was the perfect solution, or so I thought. Don't get this confused with the typical love triangle fiasco. This drama goes down in a way that none of us saw coming or expected. that none of us saw coming or expected.
