Madson Crow was raised in a small Indiana town, played college football for Perdue and should have gone on to play professionally for his home state Indianapolis Colts. His life changed when a knee injury kept him from following his dreams of playing in the pro's. Madson took his education in engineering and put it to use at Masterson's Incorporated in Indianapolis. The owner of the company, Marc Masterson, admired the hard working young man and eventually introduced him to his lovely daughter Natalie. With a fantastic career, a new love and a life that seemed worth living, Madson ventured out to marry the woman of his dreams. However, on the first night of thier honeymoon, in a strange town, his life suddenly changed when something confronted them and abducted his bride vanishing into Boston's night fog. Confronted with his own sanity, given only 72 hours to find her and get her back, having only a few people admit that he's not crazy and having to attain the weapons to fight the monster who took her, Madson sets out into the city on his new mission; to kill vampires! Madson's athelitic abilities, his wealth and his no retreat-no surrender attitude; leads him into the dark depths of Boston's nightlife, where he discovers that there are more sinister things going on in this city, other than creatures that haunt our nightmares. He quickly learns that a secret society of wealthy, powerful and politically connected men have been and are still doing vile, disgusting and evil things in thier search for immortality. With the assistance of a local biker club, known as The Brotherhood and an exclusive unofficial government team know as the Extractors; Madson moves forward to find the vampire on his quest to not only get his love back, but also to save the city from a hostile take over. Can he find the vampire in time to save his lost love Natalie? Will he stop the evil that has beseiged this great American city? The game clock is ticking down and Madson Crow, who is hell bent on revenge, is now a man on a mission! Welcome to the world of Madson Crow: Vampire Killer!
