Who Am I to God and Why Does He Love Me? Robert Saunders

Questions from the lowest of lows who received answers from the Highest of Highs. "Who am I to God and why does He love me?" Such questions are often asked by people who suffer from low self-esteem, a variety of addictions, afflictions, and life controlling issues. I asked myself that same question many times after having an encounter with God. Once I discovered the answer, it helped me to reconcile in my mind that a terrible and even an evil person could be loved by God. Not only can a person be loved but also restored to sanity through intimacy with the creator God. One thing is for certain, we do not go after God first. The Bible says clearly that no one comes to Jesus unless they are drawn by God the Father. God demonstrates His mercy and love toward us by drawing us to Himself while we are still a sinner. God doesn't want his children to be separated from Him. He knows that we are corrupted and without the strength or knowledge to seek Him out on our own. With that in mind, it is my prayer for you to read this book with an expectation of being encountered by the God who created you. He is a God who loves you with His entire being. The Bible tells us that, "God is love" (1 John 4: 8 & 16). How comforting it is to know that!
