Edges: The Fog's End Kacy O'Brien

“Now that they were here, it felt surreal, like she’d made her way through the fog only to find she was in a dream...” Somewhere along California’s central coast, you’ll find a quaint little seaside town boasting fresh air, friendly locals, and plenty of country charm... just don’t overstay your welcome. Unfortunately, seventeen-year-old Tabitha Colgan has no choice. With her father, Jack, struggling to find work, the letter informing them of her inheritance couldn’t have come at a better time. Why would a man she’d never known, in a town she’d never heard of, leave everything to her? It would all take a bit of getting used to — the creaky house, the local surf break, and the spotty wireless signal — but of greater concern are the malevolent forces at work in this seemingly innocent town. Cryptic warnings. Mysterious deaths. And wherever Tabitha goes, she is being watched, by the living... and the dead.
