Little White Lies Erin Lawless

Beware false friends, and the smiles of certain boys. Miles and Nicky are getting married. Unfortunately, their wedding party is a tangle of ex-housemates, ex-friends and ex-lovers. Leigha, Sukie and Harriet used to be the best of friends. Unfortunately, there are some things you just can't forgive. Johnny thought that Leigha was the love of his life. Unfortunately, he still thinks that; even more unfortunately, she never loved him at all. Adam and Harriet might have been something, once. Unfortunately, now Adam isn't even sure if he's going to be able to look her in the face. So this wedding isn't just a wedding, it's a reunion. Can anything be salvaged from the past? And what really happened between them all, back at university? With a playful but firm grasp of the zeitgeist, Little White Lies moves back and forth between 2007 and 2012 and seven characters to build up a rich and compelling story, in turns funny and sad, but always honest, about friendship in all its forms and the practicality of second chances. This novel is recommended for readers aged 17+ due to language and mature situations.
