Small Mediums at Large: The True Tale of a Family of Psychics Terry Iacuzzo

In this rollicking, emotional tale, readers enter the vivid inner life of psychic Terry Iacuzzo-and find out what it's like to struggle with your own secrets when everyone else's secrets are demanding attention too. This is a thrilling, terrifying, and sometimes heartbreakingly sad journey that takes readers from her childhood in a close-knit Italian community in Buffalo, to Greenwich Village in the psychedelic 1960s, to meetings with remarkable mediums in the '70s, and into her long career as a professional psychic, reading for everyone from film directors to Wall Street brokers to rock stars. Above all, it's the story of a family that can see amazing things-but can't quite figure each other out.
