Katy Yoder loves her Mennonite traditions. But when she takes on a temporary job as a nanny she finds herself forced to bend a few rules from helping her charges take notes on a contemporary sitcom to ferrying them to dance classes. Add a match-making roommate who is scheming with an old flame, and Katy s black and white world is suddenly hazy with shades of gray. In fear and panic Katy lashes out, only to realize that she s hurting the ones who love her the most. Can she learn to forgive, or will she choose judgment over love?
