MARRIAGE

SEX GUIDE FOR MARRIED COUPLES

A good and fulfilling sex life takes time to nurture and maintain. Our busy lives make it challenging to maintain a healthy sex life. However, we need to prioritize sex. Sex is vital in a relationship. It brings us together in such a manner that nothing else can. A fulfilling sex life doesn't mean spending hours and hours making love rather we use our imagination to have quality sex. One way to achieve this is by trying our different sex positions and having sex in different places. Move beyond your current sex boundaries and have an open mind towards trying out different stuff. The more you experiment, the more fun you have. Sex is a powerful emotional experience that you should always enjoy. Keep improving your sex life. You can always have better sex, stronger orgasms and a better relationship. Most relationships that break down have something to do with sex. It was no longer fun. Someone didn't feel wanted and this led to emotional distance and an eventual breakup. No matter your age, you should always have a physically and emotionally fulfilling sex life. Various obstacles hinder us from getting a satisfying sex life. They may be emotional obstacles, body image, low self-esteem, performance anxiety.

In this eBook, we shall look at different ways to improve our sex lives. Sex positions are a great way to change routine and avoid getting stuck in a rut where we always have sex in a certain position. However, there are other ways through which we can also improve our sex lives. Read on to know how.
