My People Perish for the Lack of Knowledge: Study to Shew Thyself Approved unto God Larry D. Thomas Sr.

My People Perish for the Lack of Knowledge: Study to Shew Thyself Approved unto God polishes one's understanding of the Scriptures so that God's Word can serve as a mirror revealing the true nature of one's life. This honest and unblinking look at reality prepares one to follow Jesus Christ, to prepare for his return, and to serve courageously as a leader of other Christians. Building upon his service as a pastor and his experience offering a nationally known tent ministry, Elder Larry D. Thomas Sr. brings the spirit of revival to this study. Each chapter begins with a brief explanation of a key element of the Christian faith, including topics like the baptism of the Holy Ghost, spiritual gifts in the local church, demons, and the second coming of Christ, and then presents a list of questions paired with pertinent scriptural references. By following this step-by-step study guide, one may deepen one's faith and prepare to serve powerfully as a leader of Christians and a witness to the Lord. For all who sense that the Christian faith's power and mystery are greater and deeper than they currently understand, My People Perish for the Lack of Knowledge: Study to Shew Thyself Approved unto God stands ready to offer a guide to the knowledge contained in the Scriptures. If you spend time with this must-read book, you will emerge from your encounter with the Bible's witness better equipped to enhance, teach, and bless the body of Christ in these latter days.
