Did the decades-past conversations of gangster Al Capone awaken composer Craig Cervantes at his strange Castelwood home several years ago? Why did a Chesterfield resident do a double-take when he met up with an English castle ghost made famous by Mark Twain? These questions and many more are explored in careful detail in Spirits of St. Louis II. Woven together with the tales are local lore, historic tidbits, and fascinating viewpoints that run the gamut from believers of the paranormal to scientific purists.
