UNSUPERVISED and loving it Sharon Row

From the cigarette smoke filled back room of the barber shop where bets were made by her father, a bookie, to hiding behind bushes outside the police station, afraid she was about to be killed. Sharon has lived her life with a quest for love only to find herself in the mix of drama, trauma, betrayal, sex, survival, rescues, and deaths. Many people will identify with parts of her journey. Her life's adventures are riveting and spontaneous. The book is inspiring, nostalgic, and engaging. All set in the beautiful scenery of the Monterey Peninsula, the Palm Springs desert and the glamorous Beverly Hills in California.
