The elemental humanness in both men and women characters and then human relationships has heightened the pitch of the Malgudi milieu which he so realistically presents. Narayan's fiction is always realistic Indian fiction. It is shown that R.K.Narayan's men character inevitably mature into wisdom.. Many of the men characters differ among themselves in their thoughts, beliefs, habits, ambitions and conduct with sincerity, Narayan depicts the oddities and eccentricities of some of the men character. Their contribution to the comic design of his novels is very significant. Narayan's comic vision ensues normalcy and harmony as his men and women ultimately and inevitably mature into wisdom.
