Are you an Online-Consignment-Seller Wannabe?

Because you haven't figured out how and where to get an endless supply of quality merchandise to fuel your online auctions.

Not everyone wants to become a Drop Shipper or to depend on wholesalers to sell merchandise to them at paper-thin margins. This isn't why I signed onto the eBay adventure!

My first two years as an eBay consignment seller, I'd gotten a belly full of estate auctions, garage sales, and thrift shops. I read all the "how to sell on eBay" books and even lurked online seller community chat rooms. Nothing answered the big question of: where can I get an endless supply of real antiques and collectibles?

Then, one Sunday in February of 2003, while sitting in church the answer to the big question came to me. The answer: senior citizens.

Seniors have lots of stuff for you to turn into ca$h

Here are three reasons:

1. Seniors are the fastest growing segment of the US population.
2. Many seniors are living on fixed incomes and need extra cash.
3. This book has a proven process to gain their trust and ethically mine the heirlooms stored in their basements, attics, and garages.
