God is loving, caring, good, and . . . dangerous? Indeed, the many and varied attributes of God can be puzzling. To understand and make peace with who he is, to step into a deeper walk with him, requires faith and courage. Many books promise to bring readers closer to God; this one delivers. Through their willingness to be vulnerable, authors Linda Clare and Kristen Johnson Ingram explore what it means to surrender to Christ and love as completely as he has loved us. Making Peace with a Dangerous God presents a provocative three-part pathway to God. Employing a brave new "mentoring on paper" technique that capitalizes on dialogue and real-life examples, the authors have crafted a book that will become a classic for understanding how to approach and interact with our Creator.
