There is a special bond between grandparents and grandchildren. In this award-winning book, a grandfather strengthens that bond as he tells his grandchildren true stories of our Nation's birth. Join them on their voyage through the history of America's Founding.

Quotes from Pilgrims To Patriots. "...Molly Pitcher kept firing the cannon. The smoke stung her eyes. The smell of gunpowder burned her nose. Musket shot and cannonballs were whistling past her left and right..."

" 'Our story starts almost 800 years ago, with a king,' I said. 'A king?' Carter exclaimed, 'we don't have a king!' 'You're right, Carter,' I said, 'we don't have a king, but where we came from - England - had a King. In fact, kings were the problem!' "

Praise for Pilgrims To Patriots. "Well written, interesting and easy to understand. An excellent history of the beginning of our nation, the founding fathers and the issues they faced." Amazon 5 star review.

"The format idea, of a Grandfather telling the story of the Nation's founding, makes the material flow better than it would in a classic textbook. If you want to learn some important US History in a fun way, this is a great option." Another Amazon 5 star review.

Sit alongside the grandchildren as they learn about Molly Pitcher, the Indian Prophecy, the War of Jenkins' Ear, and Elizabeth Key, the slave who sued the Virginia Colony for her freedom.

Get to know the "Super Six" Founding Fathers as real people: George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Alexander Hamilton, and James Madison.
