2014-2015 Boyd's Commentary Dr. Singletary Victor

This 2014-2015 Boyd's Commentary continues the tradition of excellence established through the years. Sunday school directors, teachers, and students are again provided with a scholarly, stimulating, insightful, and resourceful Sunday school lesson commentary. Readers will find in its pages information that will provide the necessary insight to "rightly divide" the Word of God (see 2 Tim. 2:15). Edification is one of the primary goals of the writers of this commentary. The section titled "Exposition" provides the reader with a verse-by-verse analysis of the Scriptures and is designed to help the serious Bible student gain a deeper understanding of the Word of God. The "Lesson Applied" section provides a life application approach, which helps the reader interpret Scripture from the perspective of its practical impact on his or her life. In the "Let's Talk About It" section, pertinent questions, which intersect with our life concerns, are raised and answered by examining what the Scripture teaches on those issues.

Still don't have it, oh come on its known as reading friends.

Peter Landon:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this 2014-2015 Boyd's Commentary can make you feel more interested to read.
