Charity Powers has left behind her predictable small town life to gamble on a fresh start in New York. When she's viciously attacked in a local bar, her life takes on an unforeseen turn. Justin Collins saves her from the attack and she instantly falls for him, but his damaged past keeps him distant. At a new job, she falls into an online relationship with her new boss JP. He fills the gaps of Justin's absences and feeds a fire Justin left unattended until her attacker returns and Justin must face his past and expose the truth about himself to save her.

Now he exists only to love her and he uses his money and power keep her safe. Charity makes it her mission to heal Justin's wounded past, but to do it she must hide dangerous secrets from him that risk their relationship and put her in harm's way. Secrets cannot be kept from Justin and discovering Charity's betrayal devastates him, but his broken heart is no rival to the fury of learning that his beautiful obsession is being hunted. As they discover their true enemy, the gifted assassin in Justin can sense the ruthless killer all around them, hunting them, closing in as a power struggle larger than anyone was prepared for unfolds around them. Together, Justin and Charity drive their stalker out into the open to face them.

Charity and Justin refuse to let anything interfere with their lust for each other. They accept their fate with all the erotic heat they both have craved from the beginning, and find that together they are unstoppable.
