Back When I Was Young: Stories of Growing Up in Changing Times Paul Duerksen

That season of puberty is difficult enough for most young boys in any age (and girls). It becomes more difficult when it begins shortly after one's family moves to a new and different region. My most memorable stories come from those years in my life. Here, from a distance, I view them through the lens of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. In doing so I find enduring truth and learn that Christ was present more often than I ever thought, and in more ways than I knew.
