Ginger hate's everyone, really. Not really. The less she has to see people, the happier she is. She has two close friends. Her best friend, and her childhood best friend. Her childhood one being male. He took care of her, even if they did drive one an other crazy. But, She was sick of being single, even though she loved it. So now, She finally is going to give it her all and find the man of her dreams. Only problem is, she works from home and it will have to be from an online dating site. The joys. But, will it be the online dating site that gives her what she is looking for? Or the guy she almost hit with her cart, who has been stalking her for weeks? How does he know her every move? How does he find her? What is with all the note's? Now her home? Why does he have to be so damn sexy and not her type? What is worse? Online? Or real life?
