Learning to Following Directions: The Fun and Easy Way is workbook that offers fun activities that strengthen listening skills, vocabulary, and mental flexibility. Subtleties in the English language can be difficult to master, and many students encounter difficulties with the wording in directions and multiple choice questions. These activities were created for students that need to learn how to interpret questions, follow directions, and understand subtle linguistic cues. It's ideal for remediating language deficits and reading comprehension difficulties. It can be used by therapists, teachers and parents.
