Mate: The Complete Serial Violet Haze

Simone Winston spent two months collared and kept as a slave after being taken. Set free by the Master she loved and thought would keep her forever, her whole life falls apart, leaving her a twenty-two year old single mother with no one to rely on. Working a low-wage job to survive, she has no reason to trust anyone ever again, especially the mysterious man who leaves her a generous tip after a brief conversation.

Drawn to him despite her reservations, undeniable passion along with a deep, unexplainable connection has her letting him close, and allows her to discover why the man named Isaac Toft has invited her into his life. When a danger neither of them expects leads Isaac into a tough position, puts Simone on the radar of someone who wouldn't mind having her as his own, and places the life of a child in the hands of someone unstable, the future of their relationship is thrown directly into the line of fire.

Note: this contains the Mate serial, from Part One through Four, and is 270 pages. Thanks so much for reading and enjoy!
